Amend the Acts relating to the College of Maynooth.

A.D. 1871.

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Parliament of Ireland in the session holden in the thirty-fifth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for the better education of persons professing the Popish or Roman Catholic religion:"

And whereas the said Act is amended by the fourth and fifth sections of an Act passed by the Parliament of Ireland in the session holden in the fortieth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for the better government of the seminary established at Maynooth for the education of persons professing the Roman Catholic religion, and for amending the laws now in force respecting the said seminary:"

And whereas it is expedient to increase the number of trustees elected under the said first-recited Act from seventeen to twenty-eight, and otherwise to amend that Act:

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1. It shall be lawful for the trustees elected under the said first-recited Act to elect, in addition to the seventeen elective trustees so elected, eleven persons, qualified in manner by that Act prescribed, to be trustees for the purposes of the said first-recited Act as so amended as aforesaid; and the persons so elected shall act as and be trustees in the same manner in every respect as if they had been elected under the provisions of the said first-recited Act, and all the powers conferred by that Act as so amended as aforesaid upon trustees shall apply and may be exercised by the said persons as such trustees, together with the trustees elected or to be elected under the said first-recited Act or this Act; and the said

[Bill 243.]

A.D. 1871. first-recited Act shall be read and construed as if the number of the elective trustees thereby prescribed had been twenty-eight instead of seventeen, and all the provisions of the said first-recited Act as so amended as aforesaid shall apply to the said increased number of trustees, and to the election of their successors from time to time, 5 and to all acts, matters, or things to be done by the trustees acting in the execution of the said first-recited Act as so amended as aforesaid.

Repeal of
sec. 4. of 35 G. 3.
c. 21. (i.)

2. From and after the passing of this Act section four of the said first-recited Act shall be and the same is hereby repealed. 10
